

My Best memories of the summer '09

Some of my best memories of the summer of '09, is my birthday party in July. At my birthday party we went to Six Flags Great America, I invited 8 girls. The first ride we went on was Superman a ride, where they flip you flat so you look like your flying, just like the fictional character Superman! It was sooo much fun. I think this was one of my favorite summer memories in my entire life. After Great America ALL of the girls at my birthday party slept over!! That was also AWESOME!

Another great memory of the summer of '09 was going on a family vacation to Michigan. On our vacation in Michigan we got a nice house on the lake. Our friends, my family, and I stayed in this house together. Everyday my sister and I would be one the beach swimming and jumping over the waves. Except for one day the waves were so big my parents didn't even let us go in the water. I loved the feeling of being on the beach in the sun. IT WAS AWESOME! I hope that next summer I have another great vacation just like this one. I think this summer was one of my best summers in my entire life. I hope that all summers are this great!
